

Digital storytelling with long-term survivors of HIV

When: Jan 26-28th (Fri-Sun). The Workshop is 9-5pm and requires your full participation.

Where: Lighthouse Writers Workshop 1515 Race St. Denver

What: Come tell a story from your experience of being a part of the community of long-term survivors of HIV. The workshop will guide you through making a short movie/digital story about it. Workshops will be held and a live screening and theater performance with storytellers who choose to participate will take place in Spring 2018. Watch stories from year one's focus on women living with HIV here: <https://www.stayingpositiveproject.org/>

Why: To heal, to combat stigma, to educate, to remember, to learn, to share.

Register: <https://www.stayingpositiveproject.org/tell-your-story> (Only 10 spots available)

Support: All participants will receive a $100 gift card upon completion of their story. Staying Positive will also provide child/elder care if requested. All meals (breakfast and lunch) will be provided!

Questions: Daniel Weinshenker | daniel@storycenter.org | 720.635.1833

